New Heritage to Horizons Concerts Showcase Excellence

by Chief Master Sgt. Bob Kamholz

4/27/2017 - Washington, D.C. -- Last year, acting Secretary of the Air Force, Lisa S. Disbrow, asked public affairs leaders to research the possibility of creating a recurring, public, ceremonial event that would honor those who support the United States Air Force. The team envisioned a unique set of themed concerts at the U.S. Air Force Memorial, occurring monthly from May through August. They titled the series "Heritage to Horizons."

Memorial Day concerts: Honor the Fallen

by Chief Master Sgt. Bob Kamholz

4/27/2017 - Washington, D.C. --As the United States Air Force celebrates 70 years of service, the upcoming Memorial Day weekend celebrates the rich history that is the U.S. Air Force and honors seven decades of service and sacrifice by those Airmen who paid the ultimate price for freedom.

Six performing ensembles will participate in events commemorating Memorial Day throughout the National Capital Region and across the country this coming Memorial Day weekend.
