Max Impact Performs at Upcoming Air Force 70th Birthday Week Tattoo

by Technical Sgt. Nalani Quintello

9/1/2017 - Washington, D.C. -- Max Impact is currently preparing their musical selections for the 2017 Tattoo, celebrating the Air Force's 70th Birthday. On September 13 at 7:00 p.m., the Air Force will demonstrate its powerful legacy of breaking barriers since 1947.

As a contribution to the Air Force's heritage of unprecedented excellence, Max Impact takes pride in their participation in the 70th birthday week Tattoo. Having begun a new tradition of writing and performing original patriotic music, the six-piece, premier rock band will showcase two of their newest original songs, highlighting a few strategic missions of the number one Air Force in the world.

U.S. Air Force 70th Birthday Concerts

by Chief Master Sgt. Bob Kamholz

9/1/2017 - Washington, D.C. -- American Airmen have been breaking barriers for 70 years in air, space and cyberspace, resulting in global vigilance, reach and power. The U.S. Air Force Band is proud to help celebrate this milestone by providing musical support to numerous official birthday events in September.

A quartet from the Singing Sergeants is scheduled to represent the U.S. Air Force at the Philadelphia Eagles versus the Washington Redskins game at FedEx Field on Sunday, Sept. 10 at 1 p.m. The group will be performing the national anthem and "God Bless America" in honor of Air Force Appreciation Day at the stadium.
