

A1C Lancer Hardy

A1C Lancer Hardy hails from Susanville, California. Hardy was a freelance bassist that brings more than 20 years of experience with him to the US Air Force Band career field. Well-versed in all styles of music, A1C Hardy performed with orchestras, jazz ensembles, theater, and bluegrass groups throughout Texas, Arkansas, California, and Colorado.

A1C Hardy earned his Bachelor's degree from The University of North Texas where he studied with Jeff Bradetich. He arrived at the Air Force Band of Flight in June of 2017 and performs with Systems Go. In addition to playing bass, A1C Hardy enjoys hiking and trail running in the mountains, culinary arts, and spending time with his wife and four rescue dogs.

EDUCATION

2011 Bachelor of Music, University of North Texas

2008 Associate of Music, San Antonio College

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, OH Jun 2017-present

AWARDS

2017 Basic Military Training Honor Graduate

2017 "Warhawk" Physical Fitness Award

DECORATIONS

National Defense Service Medal

Global War on Terrorism Service Medal

Basic Military Training Honor Graduate

EFFECTIVE DATES OF PROMOTION

Airman First Class - 4 June 2017

