

In mid-2011, The United States Air Force Band discontinued emailing the Cadenza newsletter in order to change the format, and, at that time, we didn't think it would take very long to accomplish the redesign. However, it did! We apologize that we didn't send an explanation at that time. Regardless, starting this month, we will be sending monthly emails highlighting information and articles on our website. You can expect to receive them around the 15th of each month. We hope you enjoy the new format of the e-Cadenza!
