Performances for vets, music educators and public in North Carolina

by Chief Master Sgt. Jenn Pagnard

10/30/2014 - Washington, D.C. - In mid-November, the Concert Band and vocalists from the Singing Sergeants are hitting the road for a 5-day tour through North Carolina. The performances will be conducted by the Band's newest officer, Lt. Col. Donald Schofield Jr. This is his second assignment with The U.S. Air Force Band, Washington D.C. From 2001 to 2003, he was handpicked to serve as the tenth director of the Air Force Strings where he led performances across the country, and at the White House, Pentagon and Washington National Cathedral before international audiences.
