News, Feature Stories, & Commentary

Concert Band releases newest album "American Voices"

by Master Sgt. Brooke

11/30/2015 - WASHINGTON -- The United States Air Force Band is proud to announce the release of our latest album: "American Voices." Although entirely instrumental, these programmatic works by American composers give "voice" to many attributes that are part of American life and culture: iron-willed resilience, deep-rooted faith, poignant poetry, boundless beauty, thrilling excitement, selfless service and even raucous humor.

Max Impact returns to Basic Training

by Master Sgt. Jake McCray

11/30/2015 - WASHINGTON -- This past fall, Senior Master Sergeants Matt Ascione and Ryan Carson returned to their Air Force roots, traveling to the Basic Training facilities on Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas. There, they met with instructors and trainees in order to "Re-blue and re-acclimate" themselves with the basic training environment. The trip was not just for nostalgia's sake, however. Following-up the success of their previous four original songs and music videos, Max Impact musical director Ascione and non-commissioned officer in charge Carson will create an all-new song dedicated to the Air Force's military training instructors, or MTIs.

Hometown Pride – Master Sgt. Alan Baylock's farewell tour

by Technical Sgt. Kevin Cerovich

11/16/2015 - WASHINGTON -- Master Sgt. Alan Baylock shares some thoughts on his unprecedented tour of Pennsylvania last month with the Airmen of Note.

Rarely has an arranger been on tour with the band. This tour was different for a number of reasons; primarily in that it took place within a few miles of Baylock's hometown of Ebensburg, Pa. Furthermore, this was the last tour for the Airmen of Note while he was still in service.
